

NOVEMBER 2019
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

It's Go, Go, Go as TeamSport Indoor Karting opens in Hull

A brand-new leisure company comes to Freightliner Road, Hull as TeamSport Indoor Karting opens its doors to the public on Saturday 30th November.

The UK's leading karting operator has invested £1.1m transforming the unit into a state-of-the-art indoor karting venue that's all set to become a firm favourite with families, thrill seekers and those looking for a fast-paced leisure experience.

Inside lies a 400m professionally designed multilevel track, with challenging corners, jaw dropping ramps and insanely quick straights for racers to master. Customer facilities include changing rooms with lockers, children party rooms, corporate meeting space and comfortable spectator areas. There's also a fully licensed snack bar offering hot and cold drinks and a range of delicious pizzas, snacks and sharing plates, just perfect for refueling after a few quick laps out on track and celebrating the top spot on the podium!

Dominic Gaynor, Managing Director of TeamSport Karting said; "We're delighted to be opening our latest centre just off the A1166 West of the City. It's a thriving area with excellent road links to the City and neighbouring towns and villages. Our new crew have spent weeks training and getting the site ready, they're now raring to welcome customers through the doors and start sharing the TeamSport fun."

"Most people know what indoor karting is but have never given it a go for various reasons. We're sure that once someone has experienced the fun of karting with TeamSport they'll want to come back again and again. Our range of race events caters for everyone aged 8 years upwards, so whether you're a karting newbie or promising F1 superstar there's a race format perfect for you."

"As a hobby we're seeing indoor karting growing in popularity across all ages and to support this we run offers such as half price mid-week karting, discounts for students, alongside our popular GRID membership which has a range of benefits. To coincide with our launch of TeamSport Hull we are offering a special rate of £25 per person on selected events until the end of December."

TeamSport also sell a range of gift vouchers online, perfect for those seeking a give a unique, fun experience this Christmas.
